Visitor/Volunteer Pledge of Confidentiality

Welcome to reStart! At reStart we take very seriously the confidentiality of our residents. In consideration of your association with reStart, Inc., and as an integral part of the terms and conditions of your association, you must hereby agree, pledge and undertake that you will maintain the confidentiality of any information that would identify individuals served by reStart, Inc. and any information or records that are directly related to the services provided to such individuals during your association with reStart, Inc., or after your association ends.

Further, you must agree, pledge and undertake that you will not at any time, during your association with reStart, Inc., or after your association ends, access or use personal information, or reveal or disclose to any persons within or outside of reStart, Inc., any personal information of clients served by reStart, Inc.

Please understand that your obligation outlined above will continue after your association with reStart, Inc., ends.

Further understand that your obligations concerning the protection of confidentiality of personal information and client identity relate to all personal information whether you acquired information through your association with reStart, Inc.

Also understand that unauthorized use or disclosure of such information could result in the imposition of fines pursuant to applicable state, federal or local regulations and a report to our professional regulatory body.

Having read this statement you must acknowledge your understanding of the Pledge of Confidentiality.
