Conservation Discovery Corps (CDC) Service Agreement

Your name (Please print): _____

Please read and sign:

As a volunteer, I am donating my services to Connecticut's Beardsley Zoo without contemplation of compensation or future employment. As a representative of the Zoo, I shall be professional, punctual, conscientious, and conduct myself with courtesy and consideration of others.

I understand that during this pandemic, I am required to wear a mask or other face covering that will cover my mouth and nose completely while on Zoo grounds and maintain at least six feet away from guests.

I understand that if I am asked to clean or disinfect any area of the zoo, I will wear goggles that will completely cover my eyes as well as gloves to protect my hands.

I shall attempt to resolve any problems related to my CDC activities with the CDC Administrator and CDC Coordinators. I understand that I am required to attend CDC training classes and pass the final exam in accordance with my volunteer position. I will respect the authority of all Zoo employees.

I accept sole responsibility for any injury that may incur during the time I am working as a volunteer for the Zoo, except for injuries that arise due to negligence of the Zoo.

The Zoo reserves the right to terminate my volunteer status at will. I may ask to terminate my volunteer work at any time.
